Corporal Brown, Fairfield, Is Truck Driver At Bomber Base

(Special To The Times)

An Eighth AAF Bomber Station, England (Delayed)—One of the men who "keeps 'em moving" on this busy bomber base is Corporal Maurice G. Brown, 24, of Fairfield, a truck driver at this Eighth AAF B-17 Flying Fortress base in Britain. His daily duties include a variety of jobs, from taking combat crewmen to breakfast in the early dawn to bringing one of the Red Cross workers into town to pick up the daily supply of cakes for the Aero Club on the base.

A typical day begins for Cpl. Brown about 3 a. m. when he takes the flying personnel to breakfast and later, after briefing, he brings them out to their big bombers out on the "line." During the day when the big battle planes are out over another Nazi war target, Cpl. Brown will be taking trips into town picking up supplies, transporting men around the base.

Later, when the graceful B-17s begin to come in and peel off in perfect precision, the Pennsylvanian will be back on the "lines," picking up the weary combat airmen and taking them from their ships to the briefing room for interrogation.

In the evening, the hard-working ground man takes his turn at driving his truck or a big bus into the nearest town on the "liberty room" for the men. As a compensation for his long, and sometimes tedious hours, Cpl. Brown has the satisfaction of knowing that his job is another important link in the chain that goes into making an all out drive against the enemy.

Cpl. Brown is the son of Mrs. Hazel Brown, of Fairfield, and prior to his entry into the armed forces in June, 1942, worked for the Blue Ridge Pipe and Nipple company, in Greenstone, Pa.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO AID R.C. ON QUOTAS

With a quota of 576 kit bags to be completed within the next three months and with several hundred girls' woolen dresses to be completed by June, the Adams county Red Cross today asked for additional volunteer assistance if it is to complete the required articles on time.

One half of the kit bags will be made in khaki for Army use and the other half will be in blue for the Navy. It was announced, with national Red Cross to ship the materials for the bags here to be sewed by the local group of women working under the direction of Mrs. C. B. Stover at the Red Cross sewing room on East High street.

Need Workers, Money

Already 144 bags, which will complete the previous quota of the Red Cross, are nearly completed for shipment, and the group expects to begin work on the new kit bag quota in the near future, as soon as the dresses are completed.

Three requests were made by the Red Cross for assistance in meeting the quotas. More women are needed at the sewing room to replace many of the workers who have been engaged in the work since 1939 and now have either moved out of town or have secured employment which prevents their taking part in the sewing activities.

Additional donations of money are needed from organizations or individuals to purchase the toilet articles, cigarettes and the like that are placed in the kit bags.

Requested By Army, Navy

Because it is impossible to purchase sufficient new playing cards for the kits, the request is made that persons who have fairly new, complete decks of cards and who do not need the cards, turn them over to the Red Cross to be placed in the kit bags for the soldiers and sailors.

The organization also asked persons who have paper-backed books which they have read and no longer use to turn the books in so that they may be placed in the kit bags for the soldiers to read.

The kit bags are furnished by the Red Cross at the request of Army and Navy officials. It was stated, and the contents of the bags are prescribed by the military. Each bag includes toilet articles, writing materials, cigarettes, cards and a paper-bound book.

Donors Get Credit

Those organizations or individuals contributing toward the kit bags are recognized by having a card placed in each kit bag listing their names as donors. Each bag costs $1 to fill and for each $1 contributed a card listing the donor is placed in a kit bag. Already a number of donors for kit bags have been listed with the latest including the Phi Gamma Delta of Gettysburg college which gave $10 and Maj. Eston White, Fairfield, who gave $5.

The several hundred girls' woolen dresses to be completed by the women under the direction of Mrs. Stover is the latest quota among thousands of garments made by the group since 1939. Because of the increased quotas and the shortage of help at the sewing center additional women are being sought as volunteers to help with the sewing. Women who wish to do the work can sew at the room on East High street every Thursday and Friday, or they can obtain the materials there and do the sewing at their own homes. Both power- and foot-driven sewing machines are available at the Red Cross center.

All of the kit bags made so far have been sewed either at High street, or at New Oxford and Biglerville centers, it was stated.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Steiniger, Washington, D. C., announce the birth of a daughter. Mrs. Steiniger is the former Miss Josephine Toomey of Gettysburg.

German Front Line In Italy Smashed; Take 3,000 Prisoners

By NOLAND NORGAARD

Allied Headquarters, Naples, May 16 (AP)—Allied troops have smashed the last organized enemy resistance south of the Liri river and wiped out the Germans' entire front line defense zone there, scoring advances of three to eight miles since they charged out in a full-scale offensive against the German Gustav line last Thursday night.

American troops have overrun Spigno in the lower Garigliano valley. The French in a violent attack have taken Monte Fammara, two and a half miles west of captured Ausonia and seven miles north of the Tyrrhenian seacoast. They threw back disorganized elements of the German 71st division.

Meanwhile British and Indian troops of the Eighth Army repulsed a series of Nazi counter-attacks supported by tanks yesterday and recovered ground southwest of Cassino which the enemy had managed to regain in a series of violent thrusts, Allied headquarters announced.

Revengeful French Pound Enemy

The bag of prisoners taken since the Allied offensive started last Thursday night rose to 3,000 and official reports said today that the French virtually had destroyed the 131st infantry regiment of the 44th (Hoch und Deutschmeister) German division.

Grim French warriors, thirsty for revenge against the Germans, pursued battered and disorganized remnants of the enemy northward and westward from the upper Garigliano valley, capturing the important town of San Giorgio immediately south of the Liri river.

This swift thrust put the Allies in a position to flank the whole German defense system guarding Cassino and facing the Eighth Army's Rapido bridgehead.

The Americans climaxed their smash from the lower Garigliano to the base of the lofty Arunci mountains by capturing Spigno.

They also ousted the enemy from the village of Capo Dacqua and forged on northwest to win Monte le Civita and two hills which are links in the last enemy defenses in this area.

The Germans counter-attacked farther south and a fight raged for possession of Hill 108, with the enemy holding its western slopes.

Official reports said: "The Germans holding high ground west of the Fifth Army front now are dependent on rough mountain trails for their lines of communication but enemy demolitions made establishment of our lines of communication likewise difficult."

Fly 1,800 Sorties Flying 1,800 sorties in support of ground forces the Mediterranean Air Force yesterday sent medium bombers against Piombino and Ancona harbors, rail ridges at Orvieto and Pontedera, as well as industrial objectives at Portoferraio.

Light bombers and fighters continued the assault in the battle area against supply dumps, gun positions, bridges, troop concentrations and motor transport.

Eight Allied planes were lost and seven enemy planes were destroyed. After winning San Giorgio the French captured Cresta Santa Lucia and Leforche to the southwest and in the area between they seized the villages of Casale, Annunziata and Castel Nuovo, cutting the road from the northwest of Castel Nuovo.

West of Ausonia other Frenchmen pushed the enemy off Monte Castello and Monte Fammara.

Capture Whole Staff Gen. Alphonse Juin's troops captured the commander of the 194th German Grenadier Regiment with his whole headquarters, including both battalion commanders. As a result, this regiment also was considered eliminated as a fighting force.

Allied Naval forces gave their support to the ground offensive for the fourth successive day yesterday, bombarding heavy concentrations of anti-aircraft and long-range artillery in the hills around Formia and Itri behind the fighting front where the Fifth Army is inching forward.

A U. S. cruiser escorted by two destroyers carried out a bombardment May 14, reporting hits on two ammunition dumps in the target area, the Allied communique disclosed.

Yesterday a British cruiser and two destroyers pumped 800 rounds into the target areas. There was some erratic retaliatory fire from enemy shore batteries.

Sharp tank and artillery duels as well as steady infantry fighting raged around the British-Indian bridgehead over the Rapido river, which officially was reported to be now nearly two miles deep in the direction of Pignataro, enemy strong point in the center of the mouth of the Liri valley.

Mrs. E. J. Pfeiffer entertained members of the Monday Evening Bridge club this week at her home on Baltimore street. The club meet next week with Mrs. Walter.

TROUT RE-ELECTED Walter L. Trout was re-elected chairman of the York County Republican committee for the third consecutive term at the reorganization meeting of that body held Saturday afternoon in York. Mrs. Emilie B. Wogan was chosen vice chairman for a fourth term. Complete harmony prevailed throughout the session, news reports said.

GIRL SCOUTS HIKE The Carolyn Codori Girl Scout troop Monday evening staged a hike and wicker roast at the National Museum picnic grounds. The members gathered wild flowers as part of their badge work. Miss Mary Ramer is in charge of the troop.

Corporal Brown, Fairfield, Is Truck Driver At Bomber Base

An Eighth AAF Bomber Station, England (Delayed)—One of the men who "keeps 'em moving" on this busy bomber base is Corporal Maurice G. Brown, 24, of Fairfield, a truck driver at this Eighth AAF B-17 Flying Fortress base in Britain.

His daily duties include a variety of jobs, from taking combat crewmen to breakfast in the early dawn to bringing one of the Red Cross workers into town to pick up the daily supply of cakes for the Aero Club on the base.

A typical day begins for Cpl. Brown about 3 a. m. when he takes the flying personnel to breakfast and later, after briefing, he brings them out to their big bombers out on the "line." During the day when the big battle planes are out over another Nazi war target, Cpl. Brown will be taking trips into town picking up supplies, transporting men around the base.

Later, when the graceful B-17s begin to come in and peel off in perfect precision, the Pennsylvanian will be back on the "lines," picking up the weary combat airmen and taking them from their ships to the briefing room for interrogation.

In the evening, the hard-working ground man takes his turn at driving his truck or a big bus into the nearest town on the "liberty room" for the men.

As a compensation for his long, and sometimes tedious hours, Cpl. Brown has the satisfaction of knowing that his job is another important link in the chain that goes into making an all out drive against the enemy.

Cpl. Brown is the son of Mrs. Hazel Brown, of Fairfield, and prior to his entry into the armed forces in June, 1942, worked for the Blue Ridge Pipe and Nipple company, in Greenstone, Pa.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO AID R.C. ON QUOTAS

With a quota of 576 kit bags to be completed within the next three months and with several hundred girls' woolen dresses to be completed by June, the Adams county Red Cross today asked for additional volunteer assistance if it is to complete the required articles on time.

One half of the kit bags will be made in khaki for Army use and the other half will be in blue for the Navy, it was announced, with national Red Cross to ship the materials for the bags here to be sewed by the local group of women working under the direction of Mrs. C. B. Stover at the Red Cross sewing room on East High street.

Need Workers, Money

Already 144 bags, which will complete the previous quota of the Red Cross, are nearly completed for shipment, and the group expects to begin work on the new kit bag quota in the near future, as soon as the dresses are completed.

Three requests were made by the Red Cross for assistance in meeting the quotas. More women are needed at the sewing room to replace many of the workers who have been engaged in the work since 1939 and now have either moved out of town or have secured employment which prevents their taking part in the sewing activities.

Additional donations of money are needed from organizations or individuals to purchase the toilet articles, cigarettes and the like that are placed in the kit bags.

Requested By Army, Navy

Because it is impossible to purchase sufficient new playing cards for the kits, the request is made that persons who have fairly new, complete decks of cards and who do not need the cards, turn them over to the Red Cross to be placed in the kit bags for the soldiers and sailors.

The organization also asked persons who have paper-backed books which they have read and no longer use to turn the books in so that they may be placed in the kit bags for the soldiers to read.

The kit bags are furnished by the Red Cross at the request of Army and Navy officials, it was stated, and the contents of the bags are prescribed by the military. Each bag includes toilet articles, writing materials, cigarettes, cards and a paper-bound book.

Donors Get Credit

Those organizations or individuals contributing toward the kit bags are recognized by having a card placed in each kit bag listing their names as donors. Each bag costs $1 to fill and for each $1 contributed a card listing the donor is placed in a kit bag. Already a number of donors for kit bags have been listed with the latest including the Phi Gamma Delta of Gettysburg college which gave $10 and Maj. Eston White, Fairfield, who gave $5.

The several hundred girls' woolen dresses to be completed by the women under the direction of Mrs. Stover is the latest quota among thousands of garments made by the group since 1939. Because of the increased quotas and the shortage of help at the sewing center additional women are being sought as volunteers to help with the sewing. Women who wish to do the work can sew at the room on East High street every Thursday and Friday, or they can obtain the materials there and do the sewing at their own homes.

Both power- and foot-driven sewing machines are available at the Red Cross center.

All of the kit bags made so far have been sewed either at High street, or at New Oxford and Biglerville centers, it was stated.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Steinger, Washington, D. C., announce the birth of a daughter, Mrs. Steinger is the former Miss Josephine Toomey of Gettysburg.

German Front Line In Italy Smashed; Take 3,000 Prisoners

By NOLAND NORGAARD

RESPONSIBILITY OF AIDING SCOUT WORK IS CITED

"If the world goes wrong it is not the fault of the boys, not the fault of the fellow across the street, nor the school teacher nor the preacher—it is your fault and my fault because of our own failures in meeting the boy on his own level to give him what help we can in his becoming a man." D. D. Crisp, scout executive of the York-Adams area, told the Rotary club at its regular meeting Monday evening at the YWCA.

Speaking on "The Youth of Today and the Men of Tomorrow," Mr. Crisp asserted that "the Boy Scout program is preventative medicine, not a specific cure. It cannot cure a boy who has already become a problem for the community, but it definitely can prevent youngsters from becoming problems by giving them a program of character building and citizenship training in which they learn, by doing, how to become good citizens."

Learns Good Citizenship

"We may contribute to scouting financially, but unless we do something about it personally in our own community, our boys will suffer. Hundreds of youths have never become scouts because no one has asked them, and that asking is the job of adults in the community. If you tell a boy you expect something good out of him he will do his best to please. But if all adults appear to be walking great stone faces who speak only to tell the boy that he is no good—then the boys will do their best to live up to that reputation," Crisp added.

"A scout learns to be a good citizen by learning to be a good citizen by taking part in scrap drives or other acts of good citizenship. He learns to be trustworthy, helpful, clean, reverent, by doing things in which he exercises those qualities."

Thirty-two members attended the Rotary session with the president, Dr. Frederick Tilberg, presiding. Dean Hoffman, editor of the Harrisburg Patriot and Evening News newspapers, was a guest.

Mothers Honored By Wenksville Group

A social and get-together in honor of mothers was held by the Wenksville Methodist church at the Bendersville community hall Saturday evening.

A covered dish supper was followed by a program which included: Group singing, led by the Rev. G. W. Harrison, Kathryn Tuckey, pianist; toast to mothers, Marie Warren; recitations, Louetta Pitzer, Dolores Showers, Larry Showers and M. C. Black; song, "That Wonderful Mother of Mine," by members of the Women's Society of Christian Service; Mother's Day readings, Mrs. Myrtle Tuckey and Orville Black; piano solo, Kathryn Tuckey; one-act play, "Have You Counted the Cost?" by Mrs. Mary Showers, Mrs. Edna Pitzer, Mrs. Donald Wenk and Miss Jean Wenk; toast to daughters, Mrs. Guy Wenk.

Mrs. Clarence Swisher was presented a corsage for being the youngest mother present and Mrs. L. E. Kuhn received a corsage for being the oldest mother present.

Following a short address by the Rev. G. W. Harrison the program was concluded with the singing of "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds."

J. B. Wineman Tells Of Citrus Industry

J. B. Wineman, Springs avenue, told members of the Gettysburg Lions club Monday evening of the citrus fruit growing business in Florida where he has operated an orange grove for more than 20 years. Mr. Wineman has 40 acres in oranges near Bartow, Florida, on land he cleared of a pine forest.

Lions Kremer and Foglesonger of the Chambersburg club were guests at the meeting which was held at Mrs. Smith's restaurant with about 30 members in attendance.

GIRL SCOUTS HIKE

The Carolyn Codori Girl Scout troop Monday evening staged a hike and wicker roast at the National Museum picnic grounds. The members gathered wild flowers as part of their badge work. Miss Mary Ramer is in charge of the troop.

Allied Headquarters, Naples, May 16 (AP)—Allied troops have smashed the last organized enemy resistance south of the Liri river and wiped out the Germans' entire front line defense zone there, scoring advances of three to eight miles since they charged out in a full-scale offensive against the German Gustav line last Thursday night.

American troops have overrun Spigno in the lower Garigliano valley. The French in a violent attack have taken Monte Fammera, two and a half miles west of captured Ausonia and seven miles north of the Tyrrhenian seacoast. They threw back disorganized elements of the German 71st division.

Meanwhile British and Indian troops of the Eighth Army repulsed a series of Nazi counter-attacks supported by tanks yesterday and recovered ground southwest of Cassino which the enemy had managed to regain in a series of violent thrusts, Allied headquarters announced.

Revengeful French Pound Enemy

The bag of prisoners taken since the Allied offensive started last Thursday night rose to 3,000 and official reports said today that the French virtually had destroyed the 131st infantry regiment of the 44th (Hoch und Deutschmeister) German division.

Grim French warriors, thirsty for revenge against the Germans, pursued battered and disorganized remnants of the enemy northward and westward from the upper Garigliano valley, capturing the important town of San Giorgio immediately south of the Liri river.

This swift thrust put the Allies in a position to flank the whole German defense system guarding Cassino and facing the Eighth Army's Rapido bridgehead.

The Americans climaxed their smash from the lower Garigliano to the base of the lofty Arunci mountains by capturing Spigno.

They also ousted the enemy from the village of Capo Dacqua and forged on northwest to win Monte le Civita and two hills which are links in the last enemy defenses in this area.

The Germans counter-attacked farther south and a fight raged for possession of Hill 108, with the enemy holding its western slopes.

Official reports said: "The Germans holding high ground west of the Fifth Army front now are dependent on rough mountain trails for their lines of communication but enemy demolitions made establishment of our lines of communication likewise difficult."

BULLETINS

Cincinnati, May 16 (AP)—

Nate Andrews hurled six-hit ball this morning as Boston defeated Cincinnati's Reds 1-0 for an even break in the four-game series.

Two second-inning singles, a sacrifice and an outfield fly provided the score. Catcher Clyde Klutts cornered half of his mates' six hits off Ed Heusser and Bob Ferguson.

Lafayette, Ind., May 16 (AP)—

Cecil Isbell, the Houston, Tex., boy who gained fame as a forward passer at Purdue university and later with the Green Bay Packers, today was appointed head football coach at Purdue by Athletics Director Guy Mackey.

Harrisburg, May 16 (AP)—

Governor Martin today appointed Dr. Paul E. Wittmeyer, Superintendent of Schools at Sharon, Pa., as Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction at a salary of $6,000.

Washington, May 16 (AP)—

The Senate Finance Committee voted unanimous approval today of the House-passed Income Tax Simplification Bill and Chairman George (D-Ga.) said he would call the measure up in the Senate for action Friday.

Arrive Overseas

Pvt. S. Mack Raffensperger has arrived safely at a destination in the Pacific according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Raffensperger, Arendtsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman McClellan, 52 South street, received word their son, Pvt. Howard McClellan, has arrived safely somewhere in New Guinea.

Pfc. Ray W. Miller, son of Mrs. Minnie Miller, York Springs, has arrived safely somewhere in England.

Pfc. Calvin E. Heintzelman has arrived safely in England according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heintzelman, Gettysburg R. 2.

TROUT RE-ELECTED

Walter L. Trout was re-elected chairman of the York County Republican committee for the third consecutive term at the reorganization meeting of that body held Saturday afternoon in York. Mrs. Emilie B. Wogan was chosen vice chairman for a fourth term. Complete harmony prevailed throughout the session, news reports said.

Fly 1,800 Sorties

Flying 1,800 sorties in support of ground forces the Mediterranean Air Force yesterday sent medium bombers against Piombino and Ancona harbors, rail ridges at Orvieto and Pontedera, as well as industrial objectives at Portoferraio.

Light bombers and fighters continued the assault in the battle area against supply dumps, gun positions, bridges, troop concentrations and motor transport.

Eight Allied planes were lost and seven enemy planes were destroyed. After winning San Giorgio the French captured Cresta Santa Lucia and Leforche to the southwest and in the area between they seized the villages of Casale, Annunziata and Castel Nuovo, cutting the road from the northwest of Castel Nuovo.

West of Ausonia other Frenchmen pushed the enemy off Monte Castello and Monte Fammera.

Capture Whole Staff

Gen. Alphonse Juin's troops captured the commander of the 194th German Grenadier Regiment with his whole headquarters, including both battalion commanders. As a result, this regiment also was considered eliminated as a fighting force.

Allied Naval forces gave their support to the ground offensive for the fourth successive day yesterday, bombarding heavy concentrations of anti-aircraft and long-range artillery in the hills around Formia and Tiri behind the fighting front where the Fifth Army is inching forward.

A U. S. cruiser escorted by two destroyers carried out a bombardment May 14, reporting hits on two ammunition dumps in the target area, the Allied communique disclosed.

Yesterday a British cruiser and two destroyers pumped 800 rounds into the target areas. There was some erratic retaliatory fire from enemy shore batteries.

Sharp tank and artillery duels as well as steady infantry fighting roared around the British-Indian bridgehead over the Rapido river, which officially was reported to be now nearly two miles deep in the direction of Pignataro, enemy strong point in the center of the mouth of the Liri valley.

Mrs. E. J. Pfeffer entertained members of the Monday Evening Bridge club this week at her home on Baltimore street. The club meet next week with Mrs. Walter.

BITTEREST PART OF ITALIAN FIGHT IS YET TO COME

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(Associated Press War Analyst)
The Allied offensive in Italy has got away to a business-like start with its gain of from three to eight miles—more than sixty square miles of territory—against the powerful mountain defenses of the Gustav line.

There has been hard fighting, demonstrating anew that the Germans still have the will for stubborn resistance and that our progress towards Rome is going to be no cake walk. The Allied high command has warned us to expect tough going.

There are some indications, however, that the Nazis may elect to make their main stand on the Adolf Hitler line which passes through Piedmont a few miles behind the Gustav front. The enemy are reported to have made withdrawals at some points in face of the heavy onslaught.

Must Capture Rome

If this is the German intention it probably means that the Allies have their hardest fighting still ahead of them. The Adolf Hitler line is said to be powerfully defended, as one would expect from the fact that the Nazi chief's name has been given to it, and may prove to be a hard nut to crack.

However, this is no fresh discovery and the Allies must be prepared to carry the drive through to its finality—the capture of Rome—this time. They can't afford to let the Germans stymie them again, since the repercussion of failure would be far worse than as though they had merely sat tight and held their line.

Since there's strength in unity, the composition of the Allied forces invites optimism, for many races and nationalities are represented. It would be unfair to pick out any single unit for special praise, since all are pulling their weight, but we can be generous in recording pleasure at seeing our French allies in action and being given official credit in the communiqué for having made "a significant breach" in the Gustav line. It's a happy reminder that a big French Army is waiting impatiently in North Africa for its chance to avenge France's disaster. "Must Not Kill Hitler"

H. G. Wells, the distinguished English author-historian, is likely to create a storm of argument because of his assertion that "whatever comes out of this war there must be no killing of Hitler." In his "Contemporary Memoirs" entitled "42 to '44" he declares that if Hitler were killed "we should be making a present to the real evil spirits of Germany—we should be giving them just the national martyr behind whose legend they can shelter from the wrath to come."

Mr. Wells advocates that the Fuehrer be certified and put away "in a not too luxurious asylum for criminal lunatics."

Not A Lunatic

There are many who will maintain that the Allies will be unwise if they descend to psychological coddling of the Germans. We should smash them militarily and then impose such punishments as seem necessary—martyrs or no martyrs. That isn't to say that Hitler necessarily must be executed. He must be removed permanently from society, and execution isn't barred if it seems best to the Allies.

Perhaps Mr. Wells had tongue in cheek in advocating that Hitler be certified as a lunatic, but his idea likely is to discredit the Nazi gangster. One doubts if such treatment would have the desired effect, because whatever else Hitler is, he isn't crazy. He has a wickedly abnormal mind, but a man who can make the great German nation wade through blood for him and come within an ace of conquering all Europe is no lunatic. To label him as such likely would cause greater bitterness in Germany than would execution.

Social Happenings

Phone Gettysburg 640 or Biglerville 8

Mrs. Ray J. Kitzmiller, Seminary avenue, will be hostess to the members of the Officers' club of the Order of the Eastern Star at her home Wednesday evening. Additional hostesses will be Mrs. Kenneth Hull and Mrs. Ernest T. Zeigler.

Mrs. A. B. Herr and Miss Carol Randolph, Narberth, Pa., spent the week-end with Mrs. Herr's parents, County Register and Recorder and Mrs. Winfield G. Horner, Gettysburg R. D.

Judge W. C. Sheely was initiated as an honorary member of Tau Kappa Alpha, national honorary forensic fraternity at a meeting of the Gettysburg college chapter at its closing meeting of the year Monday evening at Glafelter hall.

Guest Of Honor On 88th Birthday

Mrs. Martha (Aunt Martha) Matthews was guest of honor at a surprise party tendered for her at her home on South Washington street, Monday evening, by the members of the Monday Evening club of the AME Zion church in observance of her eighty-eighth birthday. Instead of games, the members continued Red Cross knitting they have engaged in for months.

Mrs. Matthews cut a big birthday cake decorated with candles. Her son, John, of Erie, and daughter, Mrs. Anna Riggs, Germantown, were home for their mother's birthday. Club members present at the party included: Mrs. Mary Penn, Mrs. Edna Reed, Mrs. Adam Myers, Mrs. Hannah Brown, Mrs. Russell Howard, Mrs. R. M. Everette and the Misses Margaret and Jessie Myers. Additional members of the club are Mrs. Helen Carter, Mrs. Ida Smith and Mrs. Naomi Jones.

Besides doing work in various types of handicraft including basketry, reed and leather work and chair caning at their meetings at the homes of members each Monday evening, the club women have completed these articles for the Red Cross: 52 sweaters, 10 pairs of socks, nine helmets, several dozens of wristlets and cuffs for refugees, a watch cap and a scarf. Now they are working on more sweaters, helmets and scarfs.

Air Transports Moving Wounded

Newark, N. J., May 16 (AP)—The first large-scale air evacuation of war wounded inland from receiving hospitals began today when 12 new C-47 ambulance planes took off from Newark airport with 203 patients from the Holloman General Army hospital on New York's Staten Island.

A War Department statement said the move was to get ready for the time when "evacuation of casualties is likely to reach its greatest volume."

Today's first lot out of a total of 640 patients to be moved from Holloman hospital, receiving center for overseas wounded, consisted of 200 men and three women. The women were a Wac and two nurses, one of them from Guadalcanal.

Five of the ambulance planes left for Indianapolis, four for Boston, two for Cleveland and one for Battle Creek, Michigan. All were expected back this evening for repeat performances Wednesday and Thursday. Most of the soldiers were wounded overseas. More than 70 were litter cases.

New Technique Will Save Lives

Baltimore, May 16 (AP)—A new technique for repairing severed arteries by bridging them with metal-enclosed veins taken from cadavers held out hope today for a material reduction in amputations necessitated by severe battle wounds.

The method, developed by three New York doctors, was described last night to the Johns Hopkins Medical Society by Dr. Arthur H. Blakemore of the Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center, New York city.

One of the chief advantages of the new technique is the speed with which it can be performed, as compared with the old method, and that it can be done under battle conditions—making possible the handling of a larger number of casualties.

HELD PRISONER

First Lieutenant Arthur Hall, formerly of New Oxford, who had been reported missing on April 5, is a prisoner of the Romanian government, according to word received by his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Hall, Painted Post, N. Y. The Halls who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Baugher on several occasions since leaving New Oxford, have another son serving in the armed forces. DAMAGE TO HOTEL ROOM

Slight damage was caused to furnishings in a room at the Hotel Gettysburg early this morning when a guest fell asleep while smoking a cigarette. He was awakened by the smoke and summoned hotel employees who extinguished the smoldering fire with extinguishers.

RECRUITERS FOR WAC HERE TODAY

The U. S. Army in the form of a U. S. Army mobile-recruiting unit parked at center square, was in town today in an attempt to secure additional members of the Women's Army Corps from Gettysburg and vicinity.

The cab and trailer, comprising the mobile unit will be parked on the square until about 10 o'clock this evening with these recruiters, Sgts. Jean Dicks and Bonney Statler, Cpl. Margaret Humphrey, and Pvt. June G. Sheffield, on hand, to tell the eligible women of Gettysburg what the Wac can do for them.

Urgent demands of the War Department for more and more Wacs, many more Wacs than there are at present in the corps, has necessitated this trip of the recruiting trailer into the prominent, smaller towns of this part of Pennsylvania in the interests of Wac recruiting. It was stated.

Choice Of Service

"Today more than ever since present world conflict started, the Army is demanding Wacs to work at 239 various Army duties, and the present number of Wacs now in the Army falls many hundreds of thousands short of meeting the demands for Wacs that have come in from every fighting front and from installations and posts within the borders of the United States," Sergeant Dicks stated.

"A choice of service, job and initial assignment awaits any eligible woman of Adams county who enlists in the Wac now. No matter what you are qualified to do, if the Army finds that you fit into one of the 239 duties that await Wacs in the Army you can choose to serve with either the Army air forces, service forces or ground forces," she added.

If eligible women have any questions, or doubts about what they have to offer the Wac and what the Wac has to offer to them, they are urged to visit the mobile recruiting unit while it is in town. In fact, all women qualified or not are urged to drop into the trailer if only to get acquainted with the Wacs on duty.

Nervous Kitties Dote On Alcohol

Philadelphia, May 16 (AP)—Healthy cats, given a chance, to drink alcohol, refuse; but neurotic kitties prefer liquor.

After the animals recover from their jitters they go on the wagon, permanently.

What this proves about men is not clear, but it was reported to the American Psychiatric Association today by Dr. Jules H. Masserman and assistants of the University of Chicago.

They used the cats to find out under what social conditions an organism feels the need of alcohol, even when the effects prove obviously harmful.

PLANS PENN TERCENTENARY

Patriarch's Body In State In Moscow

Moscow, May 16 (AP)—The body of Metropolitan Sergei, patriarch of Moscow, and all Russia who died of a brain hemorrhage yesterday at the age of 78, lay in state today at the Boygavlensky cathedral. Burial will be Thursday.

His successor as spiritual leader of Orthodox Russian Christians is expected to be Nikolai, metropolitan of Kiev and Galicia, who is serving on the state commission for the investigation of German atrocities.

News Briefs

State College, Pa., May 16 (AP)—Dr. Carroll D. Champlin, of Pennsylvania State college, a State Department delegate to an international education conference in Geneva in 1935, opposed today the sending of teachers and administrators to Europe "for the sole purpose of directing its education program."

Asserting "increased antipathy and resentment would result" from such a policy, Doctor Champlin urged instead that post-war education in Germany and the occupied lands should be self-administered.

Washington, May 16 (AP)—A jury composed of ten men and two women was sworn in today to try 29 persons accused of conspiring to set up a Nazi form of government in this country.

The jury was completed in the fifth week of the mass trial. First efforts to obtain a jury were abandoned because of expiration of April term panels.

Harrisburg, May 16 (AP)—Richard U. T. Hoffman, of Harrisburg, who has spent 11 of his 25 years in penal institutions, faced today another 17- to 34-year sentence in Eastern penitentiary on 17 charges of burglary.

Springfield, Mass., May 16 (AP)—The Rev. Stanislaus Orlemanski, suspended by his bishop for an unauthorized flying trip to Moscow, was confined to bed in the rectory of his church today and a physician said he was "on the verge of a complete physical and mental breakdown."

Washington, May 16 (AP)—A spokesman for independent petroleum operators told a house interstate sub-committee today present OPA regulations make it "impossible" for gasoline station operators "to avoid rationing violations."

Lancaster, Pa., May 16 (AP)—Barton Sensenig, 49, of Littleton, Pa., adjudged guilty of a charge of failing to send his children to school, was fined $2 and assessed $11.80 costs by Alderman Edward Wetzel today. He refused to pay.

He was being taken to jail when his wife intervened and asked if she might pay the fine. The alderman said, "Yes."

Whereupon, Mrs. Sensenig hauled out two huge pocketbooks and dumped 1,380 pennies in front of Wetzel.

The alderman reached for a law book and quoted a passage saying he was not obliged to accept more than 25 pennies in payment of a fine.

Mrs. Sensenig swept the pennies back into her pocketbooks, wrote a check for $13.80 and left with her husband.

GERMANS BOMB ENGLAND WITH 300 AIRPLANES

By W. W. HERCHER
London, May 16 (AP)—The German airforce, striking with possibly 300 planes in its own counter-invasion aerial offensive, attacked the southern coast of England last night for the second consecutive night and the Berlin radio said today the assault was concentrated on Portsmouth.

Defensive forces shot down six planes as the Nazis came over in two waves shortly after midnight. Four other coastal towns felt the weight of enemy bombs as the raiders spread through the dark sky. A hospital was hit, causing a number of casualties.

Allied operations from British bases last night were confined to attacks by Mosquito planes against the industrial city of Ludwigshafen, objectives in northwest Germany, and an enemy airfield in France. Four aircraft failed to return from these and mine laying missions.

Allied Bombing Schemes

After a week of the most intensive bombardment in preparation for the impending invasion, Allied aerial activity from British bases has been on a greatly reduced scale for the last 60 hours. It appeared to be a grim pause for more new crushing blows.

Describing the attack on Portsmouth, the German radio said large quantities of high explosives and incendiaries were dropped "on most important targets in this coastal town," in spite of a "very fierce enemy defense."

New evidence of the Germans' mounting tension and fear of an uprising of conquered peoples when the Allies begin the western invasion, was an order broadcast by the German-controlled Paris radio that all arms must be surrendered by May 20, with the death penalty for failure to comply.

Nazi Warning

As the month advanced into its second half the German people were warned by the Berlin radio that post-invasion fighting "will not be limited to divisions on the Atlantic wall or to points under the main attack, but small waves will reach far beyond them. Then Germany will be called upon to stand her greatest and most dangerous test."

Reports told of additional disorganization of German transport, preparations to reinforce troops that might be cut off from the rear.

FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

BITTEREST PART OF ITALIAN FIGHT IS YET TO COME

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(Associated Press War Analyst)
The Allied offensive in Italy has got away to a business-like start with its gain of from three to eight miles—more than sixty square miles of territory—against the powerful mountain defenses of the Gustav line.

There has been hard fighting, demonstrating anew that the Germans still have the will for stubborn resistance and that our progress towards Rome is going to be no cake walk. The Allied high command has warned us to expect tough going.

There are some indications, however, that the Nazis may elect to make their main stand on the Adolf Hitler line which passes through Piedmont a few miles beyond the Gustav front. The enemy are reported to have made withdrawals at some points in face of the heavy onslaught.

Must Capture Rome
If this is the German intention it probably means that the Allies have their hardest fighting still ahead of them. The Adolf Hitler line is said to be powerfully defended, as one would expect from the fact that the Nazi chief's name has been given to it, and may prove to be a hard nut to crack.

However, this is no fresh discovery and the Allies must be prepared to carry the drive through to its finality—the capture of Rome—this time. They can't afford to let the Germans stymie them again, since the repercussions of failure would be far worse than as though they had merely sat tight and held their line.

Since there's strength in unity, the composition of the Allied forces invites optimism, for many races and nationalities are represented. It would be unfair to pick out any single unit for special praise, since all are pulling their weight, but we can be generous in recording pleasure at seeing our French allies in action and being given official credit in the communiqué for having made "a significant breach" in the Gustav line. It's a happy reminder that a big French Army is waiting impatiently in North Africa for its chance to avenge France's disaster.

"Must Not Kill Hitler"
H. G. Wells, the distinguished English author-historian, is likely to create a storm of argument because of his assertion that "whatever comes out of this war there must be no killing of Hitler." In his "Contemporary Memoirs" entitled "42 to 44" he declares that if Hitler were killed "we should be making a present to the real evil spirits of Germany—we should be giving them just the national martyr behind whose legend they can shelter from the wrath to come."

Mr. Wells advocates that the Fuehrer be certified and put away "in a not too luxurious asylum for criminal lunatics."

There are many who will maintain that the Allies will be unwise if they descend to psychological coddling of the Germans. We should smash them militarily and then impose such punishments as seem necessary—martyrs or no martyrs. That isn't to say that Hitler necessarily must be executed. He must be removed permanently from society, and execution isn't barred if it seems best to the Allies.

Perhaps Mr. Wells had tongue in cheek in advocating that Hitler be certified as a lunatic, but his idea likely is to discredit the Nazi gangster. One doubts if such treatment would have the desired effect, because whatever else Hitler is, he isn't crazy. He has a wickedly abnormal mind, but a man who can make the great German nation wade through blood for him and come within an ace of conquering all Europe is no lunatic. To label him as such likely would cause greater bitterness in Germany than would execution.

Judge W. C. Sheely was initiated as an honorary member of Tau Kappa Alpha, national honorary forensic fraternity at a meeting of the Gettysburg college chapter at its closing meeting of the year Monday evening at Glatfelter hall.

Students initiated were M. Elaine Rabe, Jean L. Mayer, Milton E. Raup and Eric H. Sigmar.

Guest Of Honor
On 88th Birthday
Mrs. Martha (Aunt Martha) Matthews was guest of honor at a surprise party tendered her at her home on South Washington street, Monday evening, by the members of the Monday Evening club of the AME Zion church in observance of her eighty-eighth birthday. Instead of games, the members continued Red Cross knitting they have engaged in for months.

Mrs. Matthews cut a big birthday cake decorated with candles. Her son, John, of Erie, and daughter, Mrs. Anna Riggs, Germantown, were home for their mother's birthday. Club members present at the party included: Mrs. Mary Penn, Mrs. Edna Reed, Mrs. Adam Myers, Mrs. Hannah Brown, Mrs. Russell Howard, Mrs. R. M. Everette, the Misses Margaret and Jessie Myers. Additional members of the club are Mrs. Helen Carter, Mrs. Ida Smith and Mrs. Naomi Jones.

Besides doing work in various types of handicraft including basketry, reed and leather work and chair caning at their meetings at the homes of members each Monday evening, the club women have completed these articles for the Red Cross: 52 sweaters, 10 pairs of socks, nine helmets, several dozens of wristlets and cuffs for refugees, a watch cap and a scarf. Now they are working on more sweaters, helmets and scarfs.

Air Transports
Moving Wounded
Newark, N. J., May 16 (AP)—The first large-scale air evacuation of war wounded inland from receiving hospitals began today when 12 new C-47 ambulance planes took off from Newark airport with 203 patients from the Holloman General Army hospital on New York's Staten Island.

A War Department statement said the move was to get ready for the time when "evacuation of casualties is likely to reach its greatest volume."

Today's first lot out of a total of 640 patients to be moved from Holloman hospital, receiving center for overseas wounded, consisted of 200 men and three women. The women were a Wac and two nurses, one of them from Guadalcanal.

Five of the ambulance planes left for Indianapolis, four for Boston, two for Cleveland and one for Battle Creek, Michigan. All were expected back this evening for repeat performances Wednesday and Thursday. Most of the soldiers were wounded overseas. More than 70 were litter cases.

New Technique
Will Save Lives
Baltimore, May 16 (AP)—A new technique for repairing severed arteries by bridging them with metal-closed veins taken from cadavers held out hope today for a material reduction in amputations necessitated by severe battle wounds.

The method, developed by three New York doctors, was described last night to the Johns Hopkins Medical Society by Dr. Arthur H. Blakemore of the Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center, New York city.

One of the chief advantages of the new technique is the speed with which it can be performed, as compared with the old method, and that it can be done under battle conditions—making possible the handling of a larger number of casualties.

RECRUITERS FOR WAC HERE TODAY

The U. S. Army in the form of a U. S. Army mobile recruiting unit parked at center square, was in town today in an attempt to secure additional members of the Women's Army Corps from Gettysburg and vicinity.

The cab and trailer comprising the mobile unit will be parked on the square until about 10 o'clock this evening with these recruiters, Sgts. Jean Dicks and Bonney Statler, Cpl. Margaret Humphrey and Pvt. June G. Sheffield, on hand to tell the eligible women of Gettysburg what the Wac can do for them.

Urgent demands of the War Department for more and more Wacs, many more Wacs than there are at present in the corps, has necessitated this trip of the recruiting trailer into the prominent, smaller towns of this part of Pennsylvania in the interests of Wac recruiting. It was stated.

Choice Of Service
"Today more than ever since present world conflict started, the Army is demanding Wacs to work at 239 various Army duties, and the present number of Wacs now in the Army falls many hundreds of thousands short of meeting the demands for Wacs that have come in from every fighting front and from installations and posts within the borders of the United States," Sergeant Dicks stated.

"A choice of service, job and initial assignment awaits any eligible woman of Adams county who enlists in the Wac now. No matter what you are qualified to do, if the Army finds that you fit into one of the 239 duties that await Wacs in the Army you can choose to serve with either the Army air forces, service forces or ground forces," she added.

If eligible women have any questions or doubts about what they have to offer the Wac and what the Wac has to offer to them, they are urged to visit the mobile recruiting unit while it is in town. In fact, all women qualified or not are urged to drop into the trailer if only to get acquainted with the Wacs on duty.

Nervous Kitties
Dote On Alcohol
Philadelphia, May 16 (AP)—Healthy cats, given a chance to drink alcohol, refuse; but neurotic kitties prefer liquor.

After the animals recover from their jitters they go on the wagon, permanently.

What this proves about men is not clear, but it was reported to the American Psychiatric Association today by Dr. Jules H. Masserman and assistants of the University of Chicago.

They used the cats to find out under what social conditions an organism feels the need of alcohol, even when the effects prove obviously harmful.

Huge Reservoirs Of Oil To Be Tapped
Washington, May 16 (AP)—More newly-discovered, undeveloped oil areas will await the drillers' bit at the end of the war than ever before in the United States, predicts Price Administrator Chester Bowles.

"Since most of the areas now being discovered cannot be fully exploited because of certain governmental restrictions, the industry will begin the post-war period with a huge reserve 'stockpile,'" he informed the Senate Banking and Currency committee yesterday.

Answering demands for an increase in the ceiling price of crude oil to encourage drillers, Bowles contended that it was government "equipment control, spacing regulations and proration restrictions" instead of ceiling prices that had prevented an expansion of drilling in proven areas.

Wildcat drilling, he said, subject to no restrictions except manpower and material shortages, "is at the highest level in seven years."

Warns Of Federal Insurance Plans
Philadelphia, May 16 (AP)—Insurance Commissioner Gregg L. Neel asserted today "all insurance-minded people must fight against government usurping the rights of private enterprise by first taking over the insurance business."

Addressing the Philadelphia Accident and Health Insurance Association, the Commonwealth official said in a prepared speech:

"It is the urgent duty of every one interested in insurance to stop the trend of thought among the populace with which the New Deal Bureaucrats in Washington have inculcated them as a basis upon which to suggest that the federal government can serve the public, as insurers, better than can private enterprise."

Ask Hero's Return
For Anniversary
Pittsburgh, May 16 (AP)—Friends of Marine Corps Lt. Mitchell Paige, 26, winner of the Congressional Medal of Honor, are appealing to the War Department to allow the hero of the Solomon Islands campaign to return home on furlough in time for his wedding anniversary May 30.

Congressman Samuel A. Weiss said Lt. Paige, who was overseas for his first anniversary, still can get here for the event if the appeal is recognized.

Management Upheld
On Illegal Strikes
Washington, May 16 (AP)—The war labor board upheld today management's right to discipline employees who strike in violation of contract.

The WLB reversed its Detroit regional board, which had ordered the Norge machine products division of the Borg-Warner corporation, Muskegon, to reinstate 41 former employees with seniority rights, but without back pay. WLB labor members dissented.

News Briefs

State College, Pa., May 16 (AP)—Dr. Carroll D. Champlin, of Pennsylvania State college, a State Department delegate to an international education conference in Geneva in 1935, opposed today the sending of teachers and administrators to Europe "for the sole purpose of directing its education program."

Asserting "increased antipathy and resentment would result" from such a policy, Doctor Champlin urged instead that post-war education in Germany and the occupied lands should be self-administered.

Washington, May 16 (AP)—A jury composed of ten men and two women was sworn in today to try 29 persons accused of conspiring to set up a Nazi form of government in this country.

The jury was completed in the fifth week of the mass trial. First efforts to obtain a jury were abandoned because of expiration of April term panels.

Harrisburg, May 16 (AP)—Richard U. T. Hoffman, of Harrisburg, who has spent 11 of his 25 years in penal institutions, faced today another 17- to 34-year sentence in Eastern penitentiary on 17 charges of burglary.

Springfield, Mass., May 16 (AP)—The Rev. Stanislaus Orlemanski, suspended by his bishop for an unauthorized flying trip to Moscow, was confined to bed in the rectory of his church today and a physician said he was "on the verge of a complete physical and mental breakdown."

Washington, May 16 (AP)—A spokesman for independent petroleum operators told a house internal sub-committee today present OPA regulations make it "impossible" for gasoline station operators "to avoid rationing violations."

Rejects Pennies In Payment Of Fine
Lancaster, Pa., May 16 (AP)—Barton Sensenig, 40, of Little, Pa., adjudged guilty of a charge of failing to send his children to school, was fined $2 and assessed $11.80 costs by Alderman Edward Wetzel today. He refused to pay.

He was being taken to jail when his wife intervened and asked if she might pay the fine. The alderman said, "Yes."

Whereupon, Mrs. Sensenig hauled out two huge pocketbooks and dumped 1,380 pennies in front of Wetzel.

The alderman reached for a law book and quoted a passage saying he was not obliged to accept more than 25 pennies in payment of a fine.

Mrs. Sensenig swept the pennies back into her pocketbooks, wrote a check for $13.80 and left with her husband.

SHOUN PITCHES NO-HIT NO-RUN TILT FOR REDS

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Cincinnati's bull pen has yielded a pitcher in Clyde Shoun to equal Jim Tobin's no-hit, no-run job and baseball today is beginning to wonder whether the pitching is so good or the hitting so bad. Two hitless games have been tossed within a month where none were recorded in the last two years.

While Shoun was blanking Boston, 1-0, on Chuck Aledo's home run and showing Tobin how it feels to be on the receiving end of a no-hitter, the St. Louis Cardinals broke out with nine runs in the first inning against Philadelphia. Brooklyn leveled Chicago with a 17-hit attack and the New York Giants gave the hitting profession another boost with 15 safeties at Pittsburgh.

So far the argument is even—Stephen on the pitching versus hitting debate but the uneven early-season performances are giving the record books a good workout. Shoun's job topped Tobin's because he walked only one and Tobin passed two. After Tobin strolled in the third and died on first, not a Boston batsman reached base.

Cards Blast Phils
Chet Covington, who pitched baseball's only perfect game in 1943 for Scranton, Pa., in the Eastern league, was one of the victims as the Cards paraded over the Phils, 11-6. Emil Verban had a triple and a single in the big first inning.

Dixie Walker paced the Dodgers' attack as they scored seven in the sixth frame in swamping Chicago, 14-3, behind Hal Gregg. Walker upped his average to .414. The New York Giants got partial revenge for Sunday's double loss by pummeling the Pirates, 8-7 after a rocky start.

The Yankees made eight hits count for a 10-2 triumph over Chicago with Rookie Walt Dubiel showing good stuff as a starting hurler in a five-hit job.

Win On Homerun
Frankie Hayes clouted a bases-loaded homer with two out in the last of the ninth to climax a Hollywood ending for the Athletics' 6-2 triumph over Detroit.

In a night game, Mike Guerra's 9th inning homer with one on sent Washington overtime and he scored the winning run in the 11th on Hillis Layne's single for a 4-3 edge over Cleveland, boosting the Nats into second place. Boston and St. Louis were not scheduled.

HIT BY TRAIN

New Kensington, Pa., May 16 (AP)—Ray J. Colin, 48, of Arnold, was killed yesterday when he was struck by a Pennsylvania railroad train near the New Kensington station.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, May 16 (AP)—Remember way back when horsemen used to talk hopefully about a million-dollar day at the races? . . . On the basis of last Saturday's 39,293 fans and $3,369,385 handle at Belmont park, the Fligger Filberts have doped it out that the betting will pass four million the first time Belmont entertains 50,000 customers, which may be Memorial Day, if not sooner. . . . Mike Jacobs estimates that he lost about $10,000 promoting fights at St. Nick's through the winter. . . . Bill Brandt's exhaustive search of the statistics reveals that Jim Tobin is the only major league pitcher who ever turned in a no-hitter and socked a home run in the same game.

A REFRESHING YARN

Colleague Russ Newland passes along this tall baseball yarn, told by Harry O'Dea, retired San Francisco police captain and quite a ball player in his day. . . . Back in 1887 O'Dea, playing for the Sacramento Altas, came to bat against Stockton with a runner on third. . . . O'Dea bunted down the first base line and First Baseman Charley Selma fielded the ball. . . . "I dodged, ran out of line, hurdled the low fence and dashed into the saloon in the corner of the grounds," O'Dea recalls. "Selma chased me into the place. I said: 'I'll take a beer.' Selma said: 'I'll take one too.' Meanwhile the man on third had scored. Rules were different then."

SCRAP COLLECTION

Syracuse U. still is very much undecided about playing football next fall. . . . Notre Dame's Creighton Miller has definitely decided against further collegiate action next fall and if he doesn't accept an offer from the Brooklyn Tigers he'll be one of Ed McKeever's assistant coaches. . . . Vic Delicourt and Gus Dorazio are sporting the latest finished products of Dr. William Spielberg, who has specialized for 20 years in remaking the damaged maps of fighters. . . . Bill Benswanger, Pittsburgh Pirates' prey, has compiled the program notes for Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra concerts for several years. . . . Theumps probably wish he'd teach Frankie Frisch something about harmony.

A ROOKIE A DAY

Charlie Schanz, Phillies' pitcher: Racked up 17 victories last season out of a total of 70 won by the seventh-place San Diego club and so far he's shown no sign of dizziness from being with the second-place Phils. . . . "Charlie Chan" has won three of his four starts so far. . . . Pitched a one-nitter against Giants and won it with a triple with bases

IKE WILLIAMS FAVORED OVER SLUGGER WHITE

Philadelphia, May 16 (AP)—Hard punching Ike Williams, top notch negro lightweight from Trenton, N. J., goes to the ring a probable 3-1 favorite tonight, set on knocking out Luther ("Sluggo") White and earning a crack at ex-Champ Sammy Angott in the bargain. . . . The winner of tonight's clash is promised a bout against Angott at Philadelphia's Shibe park—already signed for June 6 or 14. . . . And Ike has an extra incentive—he wants to get even for that 12-round knockout dealt him a few months back by Bob Montgomery, recognized as lightweight champion by New York and Pennsylvania.

Since then the 20-year-old favorite has won 10 of 11 starts—his only defeat dealt at Angott's hands. Seven victories were by the knockout route and five were scored in a row. Among his victims were Ellis Phillips, one round, Jose Peralta, nine rounds, and Mike Delia, one round.

Odds May Drop

But even though some fans predict that odds may drop to 2-1 or even money favor of the Trenton contender—if enough money turns up for Luther White—the "slugger" may prove troublesome. . . . The former holder of the Maryland version of the lightweight title, White, of Baltimore and also a negro, has met six champions and beat four of them. He dethroned Willie Joyce as Maryland titleholder and defeated Leo Rodak, former NBA featherweight king, Dave Castillous, Canadian champion, and Juan Zurita, current NBA champion. . . . Approximately 12,000 Philadelphians are expected to pay nearly $35,000 to see tonight's ten-round boxing engagement.

3 Ex-Ring Champs To Aid Bond Sales

Pittsburgh, May 16 (AP)—Three former ring champions, all in the service now, will help boost the sale of war bonds next Monday night at the first outdoor boxing show of the season at Forbes Field. . . . Lieut. James J. Braddock of the Coast Guard, Lieut. Benny Leonard of the Merchant Marine and Pvt. Fritz Zivic of the Army have accepted invitations from the sports war bond committee to appear. . . . The gloves worn by Zivic in his last professional fight will be given to some patron. . . . Last season he pitched 276 innings to become the work horse of the Pacific Coast league. . . . Wheeling, W. Va., May 16 (AP)—The automobile parking areas at Wheeling Downs will be open to "A" ration card holders only for the spring racing meeting beginning May 25, Eddie Stump, manager of the island track, announced.

Racing enthusiasts holding other cards will have to take streetcars from the city proper to the island, Stump said. The "streetcar meeting" idea was carried out last year when the ban on pleasure driving was in force.

ADDED HONOR

Pittsburgh, May 16 (AP)—The Maritime commission has awarded the Pittsburgh works of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. a gold star to be added to the "M" pennant presented last September, the company announced today.

BARONS HOLD EASTERN LEAD

(By The Associated Press)
The Wilkes-Barre Barons still topped the Eastern league standings today, but only after having pulled through in an 11-inning three-hour-and-20-minute fracas last night at Binghamton.

Coming from behind by bunching seven runs in the eighth and ninth innings, the Barons went on to win in the 11th when Ward tripled to score Skinner, relief pitcher who got credit for the victory. Ward scored on Staneart's single for the "extra" run.

Manager Jack Sanford of the Barons was chased off the bench in the fourth for protesting a called strike and the entire Wilkes-Barre bench was cleared in the 11th after an uprising over a close play at second.

Temper Flash At Utica
Temper flared also at Utica, where the Braves blanked Scranton, 1-0, for their fourth straight victory. A play at the plate found players of both teams milling around for several minutes before the umpires brought matters under control without mishap.

Joe Kozlowski, Scranton shortstop, suffered a slight concussion and possible fracture of the jaw when he crashed into Fred Daniels, Utica second sacker, while running from first.

A mound duel between Jack Gambol of Utica and Bob Doak, Miners' portender, was broken up in the sixth when a wild heave by Doak allowed Bitsy Mott to score from third for the only run.

Hartford won, 7-4, at Williamsport, while Elmira nipped a visiting Albany team, 5-4.

Champ Meets Champ In Interstate Loop

(By The Associated Press)
Champ meets former champ tonight—and every night for the rest of the week in the interstate league. And it looks as though Wilmington will have to get back to its original six-straight-win form if it wants to return to top place.

Tonight's game is at Hagerstown, home of the nine that now leads the interstate series with nine victories and four losses.

The Blue Rocks look as if they really might be off to a new start after their 13-4 decision over the York White Roses in the only interstate game played last night. It was their first victory in seven games and the losing streak was started by the York boys. The Blue Rocks were out hit in last night's game 13 to 12 but four York pitchers gave up a total of 13 bases on balls.

AP photographer William Allen representing the AP and the Wartime Still Photographic Pool taking pictures on the front lines in Italy shortly before he miraculously escaped injury when a bomb blasted Allied press headquarters at Anzio beachhead.

NEVER before has war been reported like this in word and picture. Associated Press correspondents and photographers—the greatest staff ever to cover a war—are telling the real, human, complete story. They live the story they tell in front lines. The story of the infantryman, the boy just out of high school, is the story they tell. Just as they report the interview with the general. For instance, during a recent four-week period, The AP service of regional war pictures from overseas passing through the New York office alone, mentioned more than 1,000 different hometowns of soldiers, sailors and marines. Moving from one area of violent battle to another, these correspondents continuously undergo most extreme hazards and hardships to keep the news and pictures coming through. Their achievement is without parallel or precedent!

SHOWN PITCHES NO-HIT NO-RUN TILT FOR REDS

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

Cincinnati's bull pen has yielded a pitcher in Clyde Shoun to equal Jim Tobin's no-hit, no-run job and baseball today is beginning to wonder whether the pitching is so good or the hitting so bad. Two hitless games have been tossed within a month where none were recorded in the last two years.

While Shoun was blanking Boston, 1-0, on Chuck Aleno's home run and showing Tobin how it feels to be on the receiving end of a no-hitter, the St. Louis Cardinals broke out with nine runs in the first inning against Philadelphia. Brooklyn leveled Chicago with a 17-hit attack and the New York Giants gave the hitting profession another boost with 15 safeties at Pittsburgh.

So far the argument is even: Stephen on the pitching versus hitting debate but the uneven early-season performances are giving the record books a good workout.

Shoun's job topped Tobin's because he walked only one and Tobin passed two. After Tobin strolled in the third and died on first, not a Boston batsman reached base.

Cards Blast Phils

Chet Covington, who pitched baseball's only perfect game in 1943 for Scranton, Pa., in the Eastern league, was one of the victims as the Cards paraded over the Phillies, 11-6. Emil Verban had a triple and a single in the big first inning.

Dixie Walker paced the Dodgers' attack as they scored seven in the sixth frame in swamping Chicago, 14-3, behind Hal Gregg. Walker upped his average to .414. The New York Giants got partial revenge for Sunday's double loss by pummeling the Pirates, 8-7 after a rocky start.

The Yankees made eight hits count for a 10-2 triumph over Chicago with Rookie Walt Dubiel showing good stuff as a starting hurler in a five-hit job.

Win On Homerun

Frankie Hayes clouted a bases-loaded homer with two out in the last of the ninth to climax a Hollywood ending for the Athletics' 6-2 triumph over Detroit.

In a night game, Mike Guerra's 9th inning homer with one on sent Washington overtime and he scored the winning run in the 11th on Hills Layne's single for a 4-3 edge over Cleveland, boosting the Nats into second place. Boston and St. Louis were not scheduled.

HIT BY TRAIN

New Kensington, Pa., May 16 (AP)—Ray J. Colin, 48, of Arnold, was killed yesterday when he was struck by a Pennsylvania railroad train near the New Kensington station.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, May 16 (AP)—Remember way back when horsemen used to talk hopefully about a million-dollar day at the races? . . . On the basis of last Saturday's 39,293 fans and $3,369,385 handle at Belmont park, the Figger Filberts have doped it out that the betting will pass four million the first time Belmont entertains 50,000 customers, which may be Memorial Day, if not sooner.

Mike Jacobs estimates that he lost about $10,000 promoting fights at St. Nick's through the winter. . . . Bill Brandt's exhaustive search of the statistics reveals that Jim Tobin is the only major league pitcher who ever turned in a no-hitter and socked a home run in the same game.

A REFRESHING YARN

Colleague Russ Newland passes along this tall baseball yarn, told by Harry O'Dea, retired San Francisco police captain and quite a ball player in his day. . . . Back in 1887 O'Dea, playing for the Sacramento Altas, came to bat against Stockton with a runner on third. . . . O'Dea bunted down the first base line and First Baseman Charley Selma fielded the ball. . . . "I dodged, ran out of line, hurdled the low fence and dashed into the saloon in the corner of the grounds," O'Dea recalls. "Selma chased me into the place. I said: 'I'll take a beer.' Selma said: 'I'll take one too.' Meanwhile the man on third had scored. Rules were different then."

SCRAP COLLECTION

Syracuse U. still is very much undecided about playing football next fall. . . . Notre Dame's Creighton Miller has definitely decided against further collegiate action next fall and if he doesn't accept an offer from the Brooklyn Tigers he'll be one of Ed McKee's assistant coaches. . . . Vic Dellucetti and Gus Dorazio are sporting the latest finished products of Dr. William Spielberg, who has specialized for 20 years in remaking the damaged maps of fighters. . . . Bill Benswanger, Pittsburgh Pirates' prey, has compiled the program notes for Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra concerts for several years. . . . The ump's probably wish he'd teach Frankie Frisch something about harmony.

A ROOKIE A DAY

Charlie Schanz, Phillies' pitcher: Racked up 17 victories last season out of a total of 70 won by the seventh-place San Diego club and so far he's shown no sign of dizziness from being with the second-place Phils. . . . "Charlie Chan" has won three of his four starts so far. . . . Pitched a one-hitter against Giants and won it with a triple with bases

IKE WILLIAMS FAVORED OVER SLUGGER WHITE

Philadelphia, May 16 (AP)—Hard punching Ike Williams, top notch negro lightweight from Trenton, N. J., goes to the ring a probable 3-1 favorite tonight, set on knocking out Luther ("Slugger") White and earning a crack at ex-Champ Sammy Angott in the bargain.

The winner of tonight's clash is promised a bout against Angott at Philadelphia's Shibe park—already signed for June 6 or 14.

And Ike has an extra incentive—he wants to get even for that 12-round knockout dealt him a few months back by Bob Montgomery, recognized as lightweight champion by New York and Pennsylvania.

Since then the 20-year-old favorite has won 10 of 11 starts—his only defeat dealt at Angott's hands. Seven victories were by the knockout route and five were scored in a row. Among his victims were Ellis Phillips, one round, Joey Peraita, nine rounds, and Mike Delia, one round.

Odds May Drop

But even though some fans predict that odds may drop to 2-1 or even money favor of the Trenton contender—if enough money turns up for Luther White—the "slugger" may prove troublesome.

The former holder of the Maryland version of the lightweight title, White, of Baltimore and also a negro, has met six champions and beat four of them. He dethroned Willie Joyce as Maryland titleholder and defeated Leo Rodak, former NBA featherweight king, Dave Castilous, Canadian champion, and Juan Zurita, current NBA champion. Approximately 12,000 Philadelphians are expected to pay nearly $35,000 to see tonight's ten-round boxing engagement.

An Evening Thought

The most natural beauty in the world is honesty and moral truth. For all beauty is truth.—Shaftesbury

Just Folks

GOLD STAR
Father, were it otherwise,
Had he turned and fled.
Sought by cunning tricks ad lies
Safety sure, instead;
Had he watched his fellows leave
While at home he stayed,
Then a bitterer cause to grieve
On your heart were laid.

Mother, hold your head up high.
That he hoped you'd do
When he said that last goodbye,
Smiling back at you.
But had it been otherwise,
Had he run away,
Bitterer tears had filled your eyes
Than are there today.

Change the blue star into gold,
For the world to see.
Now, forever, 'twill be told
Soldier brave was he.
Now, although at times you weep
When you think of him,
You have memories to keep
Time will never dim.

Today's Talk

SERENITY
That which gives to the Spring-time its overwhelming beauty and fascination is its slow and serene oncoming. Hardly noticeable are the movements that go on, finally in full dress rehearsal—a blaze of color, fresh maturity and silent triumph.

There is much being said to drivers of cars about giving their cars extra care right now, when their saving means so much, and especially about saving the gas that runs them, by keeping the speed limited. A fine idea to apply to this human machine of ours. HUGE STAFF OF REPORTERS WILL COVER INVASION

By JAMES M. LONG
Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Forces, England, May 16 (AP)—The greatest news reporting staff ever assembled to record a single explosive page in world history is ready to cover the invasion of Europe—"The biggest news story since the Deluge."

Brig. Gen. T. J. Davis, head of the public relations setup in Supreme Headquarters of the Allied Expeditionary Forces, and his staff, are the source of the biblical comparison. That's the way they refer to the invasion story and that's the basis on which it will be reported.

Correspondents from Russia, China, Fighting France, and all the other Allies are on hand, along with hand-picked American, British and Canadian newspapermen assigned from Supreme Headquarters to battlefield stations. More than 300 are in the starting lineup, which ultimately will probably approach 400.

On Land, Sea, Air
Of these about 169 are accredited to Supreme Headquarters in whose map-hung pressrooms broad pictures of the operations will be made available. The rest will be afield—with the land, naval and air forces, wherever the fighting occurs.

Here Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's communiques will be issued twice daily—at 11 a. m. (5AEW) and 11:30 p. m. (5:30PEW)—in an attempt to meet the news needs of papers and readers in two hemispheres. In addition "flashes" will be issued on special developments as the news warrants.

Of 55 correspondents with the United States ground forces 44 are American, six are British, two are from the Empire, one is Canadian and two others are from Allied countries.

With the British ground forces of 60 correspondents, 46 are British, six American, four are from the Empire, two are Canadian and two are from Allied countries.

Alternate At Front
They will be in action at least three months at a stretch. Others will be permitted to get up to the front for shorter periods in special tours.

Field reporters will go in with the troops—in battle dress and under full pack. They will be unarmed, marked only by the insignia of a war correspondent.

Only a fraction of the newsmen operating from Britain are among those accredited to SHAEF (Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Forces), because of the obvious operational limitations. Quotas were worked out with Army approval on the basis of getting news to the largest number of people of all the United Nations. The largest numbers were assigned to the great international agencies, then the broadcasters, the large newspapers operating syndicates, and the individual newspapers.

AP Chief Assists
Largely instrumental in representing requirements of the press for the vast setup was Robert E. Bunnelle, chief of bureau for the Associated Press in London and head of the War Committee of the Association of American Correspondents.

Military arrangements for the SHAEF have been handled by Brigadier General Davis with his key staff: British Air Commodore Lionel F. Heald; Public Relations Officers British Brig. W. A. S. Turner and U. S. Col. R. E. Dupuy; Lt. Col. Thor Smith, former promotion manager for the San Francisco Call-Bulletin who is U. S. liaison officer; censorship, U. S. Lt. Col. R. H. Merrick and British Lt. Col. George Warden. Communications are under U. S. Col. V. B. Phillips. Major Burrows Matthews, on leave as editor of the Buffalo, N. Y., Courier-Express, is in charge of news bulletins.

UNFAIR

Richmond, Va. (AP)—Colgate W. Darden, Jr., as governor of Virginia, is accustomed to being placarded by groups anxious to have him support certain legislation.

The "home front" followed suit the other day after the governor had lectured his two young sons on the subject of more studying and fewer movies. They confronted him, the governor related, with placards to the effect that the governor of Virginia was "unduly hard" on his children.

CALIFORNIA AND NEW JERSEY TO BACK FDR TODAY

By JACK BELL
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
California and New Jersey Democrats produced the voting where-withal for a fourth term nomination for President Roosevelt today as Republicans of the two states divided their public allegiance between Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Gov. Earl Warren of California.

Dewey, the leading Republican prospect despite his disavowal of candidacy, apparently was assured of the support of all of New Jersey's 35 convention delegates chosen in a primary there today. Gov. Walter E. Edge said an unpledged state would "push" for Dewey's nomination and 13 opposition candidates were openly supporting the New York governor.

The action of the Californians in pledging the support of their 50 delegates to Warren, who says he is not seeking any federal office, made it seem unlikely that any candidate can amass an unchallenged majority of the GOP convention's 1,059 delegates without some political trading with uncommitted groups thus far representing 401 votes.

Expect 775 For Dewey
With a Montana convention picking 8, the day's selections of 93 delegates will bring the total chosen thus far to 886, leaving only 173 additional to be named.

Dewey started the day with a publicly undisputed list of 268 pledged and claimed delegates. Even if New Jersey's support were augmented by that of Montana and all of the states yet to act, the publicly unchallenged list backing him could not reach the 530 needed for nomination until political switches are made.

Dewey supporters have forecast, however, that he will muster more than 775 votes on the first ballot. This is disputed by backers of Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio, who have claimed their candidate will go into the convention with 257 votes. Others with pledged and claimed votes include Lt. Com. Harold E. Stassen, 34; Gov. Simeon S. Willis of Kentucky, 22; Gov. Dwight Griswold of Nebraska, 6; Gen. Douglas MacArthur, 3; and Gov. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, 3.

Senatorial Contest
On the other hand, there is none to challenge the fact that President Roosevelt can have renomination on the first ballot, if he desires it.

The day's harvest was expected to bring him 104 additional pledged and claimed delegates, including California's 52, New Jersey's 34, eight in Delaware and 10 in Montana. This, with the 22 thrown his

Fraudulent Intent Must Be Shown

Pittsburgh, May 16 (AP)—Intent to defraud must be shown by the government in the trial of Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation on charges of concealing and destroying records of tests on steel ship plate for government agencies, a federal court has ruled.

Judge R. M. Gibson made the ruling in U. S. District Court as the trial entered its third week. He overruled Government Prosecutor Robert L. Wright's objection to the testimony of a defense witness and later denied a prosecution motion to strike other testimony from the record.

In the first instance, Wright sought to bar the testimony of Robert W. Brown, assistant industrial engineer at the Irvin Works, in which Brown traced records to establish the true heat numbers of the allegedly "faked" numbers covered in one of the indictments.

Wright said there was nothing in the indictment that charges the customers—all government agencies—were injured by the steel shipments. Judge Gibson ruled that intent to defraud must be shown by the government.

Cited As "State Mother" For Pa.

New York, May 16 (AP)—Mrs. Jacob R. Miller of Altoona, Pa., mother of six sons and three daughters, was awarded a citation giving her the title of "State Mother" by the American Mothers' Committee of the Golden Rule Foundation yesterday.

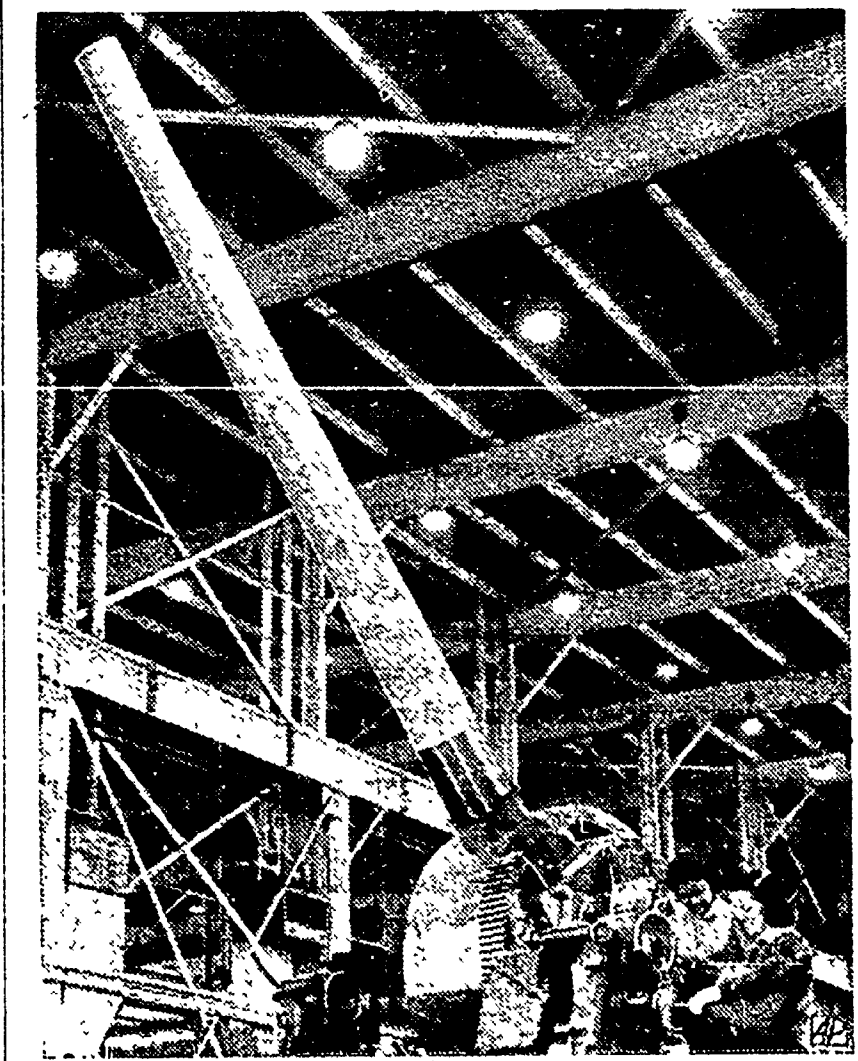

The presentations were made at a lunch at which Mrs. John McFarlane Phillips of Pittsburgh, selected as "American Mother for 1944," was guest of honor.

BITTEN BY DOG

Pittsburgh, May 16 (AP)—Pastor treatment was recommended today for four children and a man bitten by a mongrel dog which Penn township Police Chief Samuel Bickert said was probably rabid. The man, Ben Trew, 53, was bitten when he went to the aid of the children after the dog attacked them yesterday.

way by Oklahoma Democrats yesterday, would boost the president's total to 677, far above the 589 needed to nominate.

The attention was not all upon delegate selection today, however, with a hot senatorial contest under way in California which Senator Sheridan Downey, Democrat, and nearly a dozen other candidates are battling for the Republican and Democratic nominations. Because cross filing is allowed, Downey is running for both nominations. He told reporters in Washington he felt confident of obtaining the Democratic nomination.

EXPLAIN GUILTY FEELING AMONG COMBAT FLYERS

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
(Associated Press Science Editor)
Philadelphia, May 16 — The queer feelings of guilt which afflict some of the best combat flyers were described to the American Psychiatric Association today by Lt. Col. Roy R. Grinker and Major John F. Spiegel of the Army Air Forces.

The first is the feeling about a lost buddy — "I should have got it instead of him."

"The second," said the report, "begins as the flyer approaches the end of his tour of duty, he becomes intensely anxious feeling he will never reach his goal. This is the manifestation of, guilt over anticipated desertion of his squadron."

Complications At Home

"Often when the orders arrive the immediate reaction is depression. Many indulge in alcohol at this point. Others develop gastro-intestinal pains and vomiting. One pilot vomited for 10 days on journey home because 'the food was too rich, I was used to C rations.'"

"Some cannot bear to eat thinking how the boys back in the squadron are living. They feel their real self, the essential person, is back overseas."

"The third sources of guilt develops on returning home to a community which welcomes our hero. The flyer receives newspaper publicity, ovations, makes speeches. But his conscience is not fooled. No quarter is given by this inexorable part of his personality which cannot forget the terrific fears, the longing to escape danger, the ever first thought of self-preservation, no matter how well these were repressed, or that in performance the man actually had been courageous and even daring."

Small Number "Cracked"
These men are given a sedative so that they will listen to the doctor's explanation that they aren't really guilty. More than half of them return to combat.

Military secrecy prevents figures on the numbers of men who have to come home for treatment, but the extremely small percentage was shown in a report by Major Donald W. Hastings on the Americans flying from England, bases.

The Germans attempted to break the Americans' morale by exceedingly vicious attacks. Only a small number cracked and of these the sedative treatment returned 70 per cent to flying combat, 25 per cent to ground duty and only 5 per cent had to return to the United States for treatment.

An Evening Thought
The most natural beauty in the world is honesty and moral truth, or all beauty is truth.—Shafesbury

Just Folks
GOLD STAR
Father, were it otherwise,
Had he turned and fled,
Ought by cunning tricks at lies
Safety sure, instead;
Had he watched his fellows leave
While at home he stayed,
Then a bitterer cause to grieve
On your heart were laid.

father, hold your head up high.
That he hoped you'd do
When he said that last goodbye,
Smiling back at you,
but had it been otherwise,
Had he run away,
Bitterer tears had filled your eyes
Than are there today.

Change the blue star into gold,
For the world to see.
Now, forever, 'till he told
Soldier brave was he.
Now, although at times you weep
When you think of him,
You have memories to keep
Time will never dim.

Today's Talk
SERENITY
That which gives to the Spring-time its overwhelming beauty and fascination is its slow and serene oncoming. Hardly noticeable are the movements that go on, finally in full dress rehearsal—a blaze of color, fresh maturity and silent triumph.

There is much being said to drivers of cars about giving their cars extra care right now, when their saving means so much, and especially about saving the gas that runs them, by keeping the speed limited. A fine idea to apply to this human machine of ours.
Most folks travel too fast, use up too much energy uselessly, do not conserve that energy for the more important affairs of life—do not take time to do things. We all need serenity. And Nature gives us the cue. There all is serenity.

The blue sky, the sandy shore of the ocean, the deep forest, and the cabin retreat during the summer months all create serenity. Each is medicine to the disturbed mind, the troubled heart and the restless body.

Each of us needs some portion of the year in which to discover ourselves anew! But we can't do this in crowds, or in the midst of the city noise and confusion. We need the open space, quietude and peace.

I am a believer in prayer—silent,
and away from all material strife.
Nothing feeds the serenity of the soul as does prayer—prayer to the Giver of Life, to the Creator of all

Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Forces, England, May 16 (AP)—The greatest news reporting staff ever assembled to record a single explosive page in world history is ready to cover the invasion of Europe—"The biggest news story since the Deluge."
Brig. Gen. T. J. Davis, head of the public relations setup in Supreme Headquarters of the Allied Expeditionary Forces, and his staff, are the source of the biblical comparison. That's the way they refer to the invasion story and that's the basis on which it will be reported.
Correspondents from Russia, China, Fighting France, and all the other Allies are on hand, along with hand-picked American, British and Canadian newspapermen assigned from Supreme Headquarters to battlefront stations. More than 300 are in the starting lineup, which ultimately will probably approach 400.

On Land, Sea, Air
Of these about 169 are accredited to Supreme Headquarters in whose map-hung pressrooms broad pictures of the operations will be made available. The rest will be affidwith the land, naval and air forces, wherever the fighting occurs.
Here Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's communications will be issued twice daily—at 11 a. m. (SAEW) and 11:30 p. m. (5:30PEW)—in an attempt to meet the news needs of papers and readers in two hemispheres. In addition "flashes" will be issued on special developments as the news warrants.
Of 55 correspondents with the United States ground forces 44 are American, six are British, two are from the Empire, one is Canadian and two others are from Allied countries.
With the British ground forces of 60 correspondents 46 are British, six American, four are from the Empire, two are Canadian and two are from Allied countries.
Alternate At Front
They will be in action at least three months at a stretch. Others will be permitted to get up to the front for shorter periods in special tours.
Field reporters will go in with the troops—in battle dress and under full pack. They will be unarmed, marked only by the insignia of a war correspondent.
Only a fraction of the newsmen operating from Britain are among those accredited to SHAEF (Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Forces), because of the obvious operational limitations. Quotas were worked out with Army approval on the basis of getting news to the largest number of people of all the United Nations. The largest numbers were assigned to the great international agencies, then the broadcasters, the large newspapers operating syndicates, and the individual newspapers.
AP Chief Assists
Largely instrumental in representing requirements of the press for the vast setup was Robert E. Bun-nelle, chief of bureau for the Associated Press in London and head of the War Committee of the Association of American Correspondents.
Military arrangements for the SHAEF have been handled by Brigadier General Davis with his key staff: British Air Commodore Lionel
F. Heald; Public Relations Officers
British Brig. W. A. S. Turner and
U. S. Col. R. E. Dupuy; Lt. Col. Thor
Smith, former promotion manager for the San Francisco Call-Bulletin who is U. S. liaison officer; censorship, U. S. Lt. Col. R. H. Merrick and British Lt. Col. George Warden.
Communications are under U. S.
Col. V. B. Phillips. Major Burrows Matthews, on leave as editor of the Buffalo, N. Y., Courier-Express, is in charge of news bulletins.

Flashes Of Life
POLICE UNHURSED
St. Louis (AP)—The police department lost a patrolman and a horse as well when Officer Warren Allen joined the Navy. They couldn't find another rider in the traffic division so they decided to sell the horse.

YALE MEN NOTE
Cambridge, Mass.—Visitors to the Harvard faculty club were surprised to see the following dinner on the Menu: "Horse steak

But Club manager Eugene H.
Gieringer declares that the dinner is not only popular but that members devour between 80 and 100 pounds of horse meat steaks a week.

UNFAIR
Richmond, Va. (AP)—Colgate
W. Darden, Jr., as governor of Virginia, is accustomed to being placarded by groups anxious to have him support certain legislation.
The "home front" followed suit
the other day after the governor had lectured his two young sons on the subject of more studying and fewer movies. They confronted him, the governor related, with placards to the effect that the governor of Virginia was "unduly hard" on his children.

CALIFORNIA AND NEW JERSEY TO BACK FDR TODAY
By JACK BELL
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
California and New Jersey Democrats produced the voting wherewithal for a fourth term nomination for President Roosevelt today as Republicans of the two states divided their public allegiance between Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Gov. Earl Warren of California.
Dewey, the leading Republican prospect despite his disavowal of candidate, apparently was assured of the support of all of New Jersey's 35 convention delegates chosen in a primary there today. Gov. Walter E. Edge said an unpledged slate would "push" for Dewey's nomination and 13 opposition candidates were openly supporting the New York governor.
The action of the Californians in pledging the support of their 50 delegates to Warren, who says he is not seeking any federal office, made it seem unlikely that any candidate can amass an unchallenged majority of the GOP convention's 1,059 delegates without some political trading with unpledged groups thus far representing 401 votes.
Expect 775 For Dewey
With a Montana convention picking 8, the day's selections of 93 delegates will bring the total chosen thus far to 886, leaving only 173 additional to be named.
Dewey started the day with a publicly undisputed list of 268 pledged and claimed delegates. Even if New Jersey's support were augmented by that of Montana and all of the states yet to act, the publicly unchallenged list backing him could not reach the 530 needed for nomination until political switches are made.
Dewey supporters have forecast, however, that he will muster more than 775 votes on the first ballot.
This is disputed by backers of Gov.
John W. Bricker of Ohio, who have claimed their candidate will go into the convention with 257 votes. Others with pledged and claimed votes include Lt. Com. Harold E. Stassen, 34; Gov. Simeon S. Willis of Kentucky, 22; Gov. Dwight Griswold of Nebraska, 6; Gen. Douglas MacArthur, 3; and Gov. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, 3.
Senatorial Contest
On the other hand, there is none to challenge the fact that President Roosevelt can have renomination on the first ballot, if he desires it.
The day's harvest was expected to bring him 104 additional pledged and claimed delegates, including California's 52, New Jersey's 34, eight in Delaware and 10 in Montana. This, with the 22 thrown his

Fraudulent Intent Must Be Shown
Pittsburgh, May 16 (AP)—Intent to defraud must be shown by the government in the trial of Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation on charges of concealing and destroying records of tests on steel ship plate for government agencies, a federal court has ruled.
Judge R. M. Gibson made the ruling in U. S. District Court as the trial entered its third week. He overruled Government Prosecutor Robert L. Wright's objection to the testimony of a defense witness and later denied a prosecution motion to strike other testimony from the record.
In the first instance, Wright sought to bar the testimony of Robert W. Brown, assistant industrial engineer at the Irvin Works, in which Brown traced records to establish the true heat numbers of the allegedly "faked" numbers covered in one of the indictments.
Wright said there was nothing in the indictment that charges the customers—all government agencies—were injured by the steel shipments.
Judge Gibson ruled that intent to defraud must be shown by the government.
Cited As "State Mother" For Pa.
New York, May 16 (AP)—Mrs.
Jacob R. Miller of Altoona, Pa., mother of six sons and three daughters, was awarded a citation giving her the title of "State Mother" by the American Mothers Committee of the Golden Rule Foundation yesterday.
The presentations were made at a lunch at which Mrs. John McFarlane Phillips of Pittsburgh, selected as "American Mother for 1944," was guest of honor.

NO CHANGE IN LIQUOR PLAN
Harrisburg, May 16 (AP)—Individual customers of state liquor stores and licensees will continue to receive the same allotments of rationed whiskey in the next seven-week period despite a possibility distillers may reduce quantities sold to the Commonwealth next August 1.
Frederick T. Gelder, chairman of the Liquor Control board, disclosed yesterday the threat of "a nominal cut" in Pennsylvania's whiskey quota, which now runs 60 per cent of the amount bought before manufacture ceased in 1942.
"Vendors have said constantly that the supply is diminishing," Gelder explained. "Some have indicated the probability of a cut in allotments provided there is no resumption of manufacture."
"I don't think it will be a drastic cut. If they are allowed to start making whiskey again that will change the picture and relieve the situation some."
The new rationing period extends from May 22 to July 8 and Gelder said licensees will get the same 60 per cent of normal supplies and individuals will again be limited to a fifth of a gallon.
The only change in regulations is a new requirement that state store clerks record the name, address and ration book number of each purchaser, Gelder explaining "we are constantly working to prevent cheating and favoritism."

EXPLAIN GUILTY FEELING AMONG COMBAT FLYERS
By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
(Associated Press Science Editor)
Philadelphia, May 16—The queer feelings of guilt which afflict some of the best combat flyers were described to the American Psychiatric Association today by Lt. Col. Roy R.
Grinker and Major John F. Spiegel of the Army Air Forces.
The first is the feeling about a lost buddy — "I should have got it instead of him."
"The second," said the report, "begins as the flyer approaches the end of his tour of duty, he becomes intensely anxious feeling he will never reach his goal. This is the manifestation of guilt over anticipated desertion of his squadron."
Complications At Home
"Often when the orders arrive the immediate reaction is depression.
Many indulge in alcohol at this point. Others develop gastro-intestinal pains and vomiting. One pilot vomited for 10 days on journey home because 'the food was too rich. I was used to C rations.'"
"Some cannot bear to eat thinking how the boys back in the squadron are living. They feel their real self, the essential person, is back overseas."
"The third source of guilt develops on returning home to a community which welcomes our hero. The flyer receives newspaper publicity, ovations, makes speeches.
But his conscience is not fooled.
No quarter is given by this inexorable part of his personality which cannot forget the terrific fears, the longing to escape danger, the ever first thought of self preservation, no matter how well these were repressed or that in performance the man actually had been courageous and even daring."

Small Number "Cracked"
These men are given a sedative so that they will listen to the doctor's explanation that they aren't really guilty. More than half of them return to combat.
Military secrecy prevents figures on the numbers of men who have to come home for treatment, but the extremely small percentage was shown in a report by Major Donald W. Hastings on the Americans flying from English bases.
The Germans attempted to break the Americans' morale by exceedingly vicious attacks. Only a small number cracked and of these the sedative treatment returned 70 per cent to flying combat, 25 per cent to ground duty and only 5 per cent had to return to the United States for treatment.

GOVERNORS TO DISCUSS HOME FRONT ISSUES

Harrisburg, May 16 (AP).—States' problems on the home front and in the post-war period will loom large in discussions of chief executives of more than 40 states when the annual governors' conference meets here and at Hershey, May 28-31.

Topics ranging from a constructive food program for victory to social security in the post-war period have been assigned 13 of the visiting governors including Thomas E. Dewey of New York, John W. Bricker of Ohio, and Earl Warren of California, all mentioned for the 1944 GOP presidential nomination.

Dewey will speak on organizing the states for the future at a state dinner in Hershey Monday night, May 29; Bricker will review a tax and fiscal policy at a general session here, Tuesday night, May 30; and Warren will talk on industrial reconversion at the initial session, Monday, May 29.

Baruch To Attend Bernard M. Baruch, adviser to President Roosevelt, will be a special guest at a round table discussion of reconversion here Tuesday, May 30, before the governors leave for Memorial Day services at the Gettysburg National cemetery.

Governors J. Melville Broughton of North Carolina and Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, representing the South and the North respectively, will speak on the program there with Governor Edward Martin of Pennsylvania presiding.

The four-day conference program includes tours of the Indian town Camp military post, the Mechanicsburg Naval Supply Depot, a portion of the Pennsylvania Turnpike and the Carlisle Army field medical school.

Mrs. Edward Martin will be hostess to the women in the parties of visiting governors at a dinner here Tuesday night, May 30.

NAVY DIVE BOMBERS — Douglas Dauntless dive bombers sweep through Pacific skies during a raid on Palau by a heavy task force of the U. S. Navy.

Get Emergency Shoe Stamp At OPA Office

In cases of emergency, persons who need shoes immediately may apply to the Office of Price Administration District Office in Harrisburg for special shoe stamps if it is impracticable for them to apply to a local War Price and Rationing Board, OPA said today. This is one of several minor ration order revisions that have been made to facilitate the operation of the shoe rationing program, OPA said.

The change that permits district offices to issue special shoe stamps in emergency cases will accommodate individuals who have lost their shoes or are being sent to a foreign country on short notice, and are unable to get needed stamps either because some boards are not open all weeks or because it sometimes takes several days for boards to handle applications.

Another revision extends the time during which a consumer may return defective shoes to a store and get a statement to present to his local board in exchange for a stamp to replace the shoes. Previously, the defective shoes had to be returned to the dealer within 30 days of the purchase. This is being extended to 60 days, since defects often do not show up in the shorter time. Dealers are also notified that when they accept defective shoes under this provision, the shoes may not be returned to the customer.

OPA SEEKING TO PROVIDE MORE 5-CENT CIGARS

By JAMES MARLOW AND GEORGE ZIELKE

Washington, May 16 (AP)—The nickel cigar, like the old tobacco store's wooden Indian, is pretty hard to find.

Into the voices of many men, when they speak of it, creeps a note of pain such as women show when they grieve for a rubber girdle.

OPA officials know this. They are working on a plan now to get more cheap stogies made.

Five-Centers Jumped So they weren't surprised at being told of this note from a sad lad who used to fashion his dreams from a five cent's cloud of smoke.

"Why can't we buy any good cigars cheap? The nickel ones went up to 6 cents, then to two for fifteen, and now, frequently, about all you can get is 3 for 55 cents. Doesn't OPA have anything to say about prices?"

This is what the officials said: Yes, the cheap cigars are far fewer than they used to be and here are some of the reasons:

Offset Taxes Manufacturers are making fewer cheap ones, more of the higher-priced kind. With fewer of the cheap kind available, neighborhood storekeepers are saving them under the counter for special customers. And the armed services have dipped into the cigar field, taking 20 1/2 per cent of the output.

But it isn't true that the 5-cent cigar jumped to 6 cents and then to 12 cents and then 3-for-55 cents. And this is why:

Back in November, 1942, OPA told the industry to keep prices where they were then.

But to compensate for the increased revenue tax and for the

Striking Shearers Return To Work

Baltimore, May 16 (AP)—Striking shearers at the Bethlehem steel company's Sparrows Point plant, whose work stoppage threw 900 men into idleness, returned to their jobs last night after a labor conciliator told them no grievances would be discussed until work was resumed.

The strike shut down all three plate mills at the plant, which produces steel plates for landing craft and ships. It began at 2:15 a. m. yesterday.

General Manager Stewart Cort said the shearers walked out "without clearly specifying their reason" but that "they intimidated the strike action was taken because they want the company to adopt a different method of calculating their wages."

The CIO's united steelworkers disclaimed any responsibility, or knowledge of the cause, but attempted to get the men back to work.

Higher costs of labor and raw materials, OPA allowed cigar makers to add 20 per cent to the prices they were charging for any cigar in that month of November.

Make New "Specials" So a nickel cigar could be sold for 6 cents; a 10-cent cigar for 12 cents; and on up the line, just as a cigar that had sold 2-for-a-nickel could be sold for 3 cents each.

Costs rose and, because the margin of profit was greater in the higher-priced cigars, manufacturers made more of them and fewer of the cheap kind.

Then there was another way for prices to change around: A cigarmaker could turn out what he claimed to be a new type of cigar—something different from what he had made before—and charge a special price allowed by OPA if the agency was convinced he was telling the truth.

"I like 'em myself," O'Brien admitted. "Say, you think a lot of that girl, don't you?"

"You bet I do," Cora's funny little face lit up for a minute. "She's the only one I love in the world—the only one I love. Well of course, there's Pete—that is, Mr. Nickols. I'm awfully fond of him, too. But Zelda—I couldn't love a daughter any more than I do her."

"Sure," said O'Brien. He removed his cap and the sun slanted across his crisp blond curls. "Sure. Well that's what I wanted to talk to you about. I feel that way about her too. I don't know if she told you or not—but well, I asked her to marry me. Now what I want to know—"

"Of course." Here was the very opening Cora wanted and she made haste to take advantage of it. "You know—"

"Yes, I know," O'Brien gave her no chance to go on. "Sure. I know what you're going to say. Well, as I told you, I proposed to her but the more I think about it the more I don't know how it would work out. I know how you feel about her and all, and I can see how you're fixed for money. Gee, a blind man could see you're crawling with it."

He paused for a minute, but Cora was too bewildered to open her mouth. She just sat and stared at him.

"Knowing how you feel about her," O'Brien continued. "I suppose she'd get a good lump of dough if anything happened to you." He selected a piece of stone from the wall and skimmed it across the road. "Now that's what bothers me. Much as I love Zelda I don't fancy marrying a woman who may have more money than me some day. No sir, I was wondering if maybe, you wouldn't disinherit her or something."

Cora gasped, rubbed her nose violently, and leaning sideways peered into O'Brien's face.

"Oh, sure, I know. It's not fair to her maybe—but honest, I don't know what to do. I love her a lot." He smiled ruefully. "But I don't aim to be the husband of any woman with money. Not that I think you look old or sickly—or anything like that," he hastened to assure Cora.

At last Cora realized that O'Brien was laboring under the delusion that she was the affluent one instead of Zelda. In relief and delight at the way things were turning out she began to giggle. O'Brien was offended.

"Well, hell!" he exclaimed. "I don't see anything so funny—"

"Oh dear, no," gurgled Cora. "Of course, not. Please excuse me. But O'Brien did you ever hear of Cyrus H. Germaine?"

"Sure," said O'Brien. "What hasn't?"

CHINESE YOUTH DAY—Chinese Girl Guides stand at attention during exercises in celebration of Youth Day at Fu Hsin Kwan stadium in Chungking.

Killed In Collision Of Gas Truck, Auto

Delmont, Pa., May 16 (AP)—Clair Wagner, 42, of New Kensington, was killed and three others were injured, one seriously, today when his car and a gasoline truck collided here.

Raymond George, 59, of New Kensington, was in serious condition at Westmoreland hospital with back and internal injuries and lacerations. Kenneth Wagner, 39, of New Kensington, and John Coleman, 24, of Petrolia, Pa., driver of the truck, were less seriously hurt.

Pvt. M. D. Sherman of the state police said the truck overturned and caught fire. It was loaded with 4,000 gallons of kerosene. Wagner's car was demolished.

CHINESE TAKE MORE POINTS IN NEW OFFENSIVE

By RICHARD C. BERGHOLZ
Associated Press War Editor

China's new offensive on the Salween river front has swept through several strategic points and Tokyo radio broadcast a report which indicated the Allies may have a new airbase within bombing range of the Japanese homeland, Formosa and the Philippines.

The radio broadcast claimed Nipponese planes hit Suichuan, 225 miles north-northeast of Canton, and termed Suichuan "the advance base of the American airforce." Tokyo said the "main force" was wiped out, that possibly seven planes were shot down and more than 38 others set afire or severely damaged.

To Limit Building Near Airport Site

Pittsburgh, May 16 (AP)—Looking ahead to the day when the government will turn the $5,000,000 Moon township airport over to Allegheny county at the end of the war, the county commissioners plan to establish a two-mile deep restricted building zone around the project.

The commissioners tentatively decided yesterday to seek a conference with Harrisburg officials to determine what legislation is necessary to set up such a safety zone.

Transformation of the airport from a military flying field to a commercial airport will cost the county an estimated $3,000,000, the commissioners were told. Another $3,000,000 will have to be spent, it is estimated, to swing highway routes 22 and 30 past the site.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir:

I wish to express my most sincere thanks to you for the Times while stationed in the southwest.

I'm always interested most in reading about where all the boys are moving and how they are. I'm enjoying by stay here in Maryland.

Thanks again for the Times.

PFC. GERALD J. HAWN,

FORGED RATION CHECK

Pittsburgh, May 16 (AP)—Federal Judge F. P. Schoonmaker has authorized the issuance of a bench warrant for the arrest of Kenneth Davis of Erie on charges of violating rationing regulations. A criminal information filed yesterday held that Davis had counterfeited forged and used a ration check drawn on the account of Wing Willie by Helen Dugan on the Union bank in the amount of 857 points of meat, fats, fish and cheese.

Overrules Club Without Links

Pittsburgh, May 16 (AP)—"A country club can't operate on a 19th hole alone," declared Judge Blair F. Gunther as he revoked a liquor license for the Wildwood Country club.

The club hasn't had a golf course since it moved from Sample road to the old Silver Moon tavern in Hampton township, the judge said yesterday, adding:

"A club charter cannot be used as a paper shield for the protection of the privilege to sell liquor."

LEWIS INVITED

Pittsburgh, May 16 (AP)—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, is among the leaders of the union invited to attend the three-day biennial convention of UMW district 5 opening here today.

KILLED IN CRASH

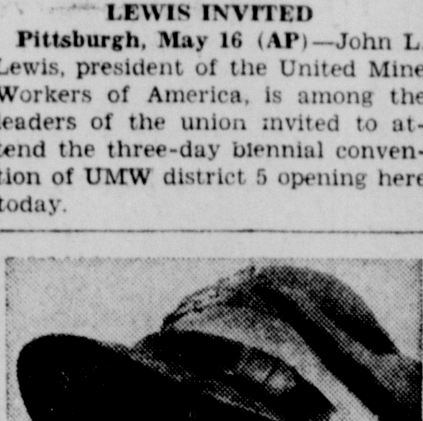

New Stanton, Pa., May 16 (AP)—A Pittsburgh youth, Edward Martin Rahe, 18, was killed yesterday when a bakery truck in which he was riding struck a bridge abutment on the Pennsylvania Turnpike near here.

COMMANDO—Col. Phillip Cochran (above) was leader of the first Air Commando Force, U. S. Army Air Forces, which successfully landed a large force of Allied airborne troops back of the Japanese lines in the northern part of Burma.

British troops continued to clean up pockets of enemy resistance around Kohima in eastern India.

General MacArthur's headquarters announced 220 tons of bombs have been dropped on Japanese installations at Wakde island and the adjacent Dutch New Guinea coastline, raising the two-day bomb total here to 554 tons. Other planes hit the Schouten islands for the eleventh straight day.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz' headquarters reported raids on Shumushu in the far-north Kurile islands, on Truk and Ponape in the Carolines and on isolated enemy garrisons in the eastern Marshalls.

Thanks

I wish to express my appreciation to the members of the Gettysburg Fire Company for the fine job they did Sunday afternoon in fighting the fire in the woods on my property on Oak Ridge.
